Happy Mother's Day

"I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD"

Good Shepherd Sunday occurs each year on the Fourth Sunday of the Resurrection of Jesus. The name derives from the Gospel reading for this day, which is taken from the tenth chapter of John's Gospel. In this reading Jesus is described as the "Good Shepherd" who lays down his life for his sheep. What is meant by this? "I am the good shepherd" is the fourth of seven "I AM" declarations of Jesus recorded only in John's Gospel. These "I AM" proclamations point to His unique, divine identity and purpose. It should be understood that Jesus is "the" good shepherd, because He is unique in character. The Greek word kalos, translated "good," describes that which is noble, wholesome, good, and beautiful. It is an innate goodness. In using this phrase Jesus is referencing His inherent goodness, His righteousness, and His beauty. As shepherd of the sheep, He is the one who protects, guides, and nurtures His flock. To better understand the purpose of a shepherd during the times of Jesus, it is helpful to realize that sheep are utterly defenseless and totally dependent upon the shepherd. Sheep are always subject to danger and must always be under the watchful eye of the shepherd as they graze. Shepherds were frequently subjected to grave danger, sometimes even giving their lives to protect their sheep. Likewise, Jesus gave His life for us on the cross as "the Good Shepherd" for His own.
