MASS INTENTIONS

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass may be offered for many reasons, including the repose of the soul of a loved one, the intentions of living persons in need, upon the occasions of someone's birthday or anniversary, and in thanksgiving for blessings received.

An offering is traditionally included with the request for Mass intentions. Mass cards are available to give to the person for whom the Mass is offered or their family.

THANK YOU TO ST. JOHN VIANNEY

On behalf of the Life Center of Santa Ana and the families whom we serve, we thank St. John Vianney Chapel for their extremely kind and generous gift. Please know that the Chapel's donation in the amount of $720.00 will make an impact on the success of our ministry and the lives of those abortion vulnerable mothers whom we serve.

As a non-profit, Catholic, pregnancy care center, your contribution allows us to continue to provide free pregnancy testing, free ultrasounds, and essential material goods. It helps us to maintain the high standards of our Walking with Moms and Dads Programs, empowering teen and young adult women and men to become the best mothers and fathers that God is calling them to be. The Life Center of Santa Ana is built on the core value that life is a gift from God. This belief guides our volunteer efforts and services. Thank you again!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ANNUAL FUNDRAISING DRIVE

The Balboa Council of the Knights of Columbus' Annual Fundraising Drive for the Intellectually Disabled is taking place the weekend of June 21 and 22.

After each Mass, the Knights will be accepting donations which directly benefit Re-Creation Camp, a residential camp program, in operation since 1978, for adults and special needs children in Orange County. The camp provides participants opportunities for fun, social interaction and spiritual growth while providing a respite for parents and caregivers.

Answer to question on previous page: The East-West Schism which took place in 1054.

St. Aloysius Gonzaga

Feast day - June 21

In 1568, Luigi Gonzaga was the firstborn son of eight children, the son of Ferrante Gonzaga, the Governor of Milan, Viceroy of Sicily, and a general in the Holy Roman Emperor's army.

Inspired by a letter from a Jesuit missionary, Aloysius (Luigi in Latin) made a private vow at age eleven to live a celibate life devoted to God and resolved to renounce his firstborn rights. He was so engrossed in catechetical studies that he began teaching catechism to other children. At age twelve, Aloysius impressed then-cardinal and future saint, Charles Borromeo so much that the cardinal personally prepared the boy for and administered his First Holy Communion.

When Aloysius made his desire to become a Jesuit known when he was thirteen, his father was enraged. His father tried to dissuade Aloysius even as his piety grew. Finally, Aloysius's father reluctantly consented to his son's desire. Aloysius passed his rank and inheritance to his brother and joined the Jesuit novitiate in Rome on November 25, 1585, at the age of eighteen. In Rome, he prayed before the Blessed Sacrament, grew in devotion to Our Lady, and meditated on Christ's Passion. With the future saint Robert Bellarmine as his spiritual director and teacher, Aloysius was obedient, manifested a holy chastity, and was charitable towards the poor.

When the bubonic plague ravaged Rome in 1591, Aloysius dedicated himself to caring for the sick. Eventually, he contracted the disease himself. He embraced his suffering with much rejoicing and prophesied the day of his death, which was revealed to him in a vision and occurred on the Octave day of the Solemnity of Corpus Christi in 1591 when he was just twenty-three years old. He was canonized by Pope Benedict XIII on December 31, 1726.
